3 This should be the full name of the main applicant as given in his or her passport or travel document.

12 It is the cardholder as named on the credit or debit card who must sign and date.

Please note that when making large or multiple payments using your credit card, the anti-fraud measures that banks operate sometimes stop the full payment being taken. This can happen for a number of reasons. If your partner is a British citizen without a passport, you must provide his/her full birth certificate (showing the parents’ names), accompanied by at least one other formal document as evidence of ordinary residence in the UK for the last three years. Anyone born in the UK on or after 1 January 1983 will only be British by birth if a parent is a British citizen or settled in the UK at the time of the birth. In that case, we will need evidence of the nationality or immigration status of your partner’s parents at the time of birth for us to be satisfied that he or she is a British citizen.

If your partner is a non-British citizen without a passport, you must provide a Home Office letter or other document showing that he/she has been granted indefinite leave to enter or remain in the UK, or leave as a refugee or beneficiary of humanitarian protection, accompanied by at least one other formal document as evidence of ordinary residence in the UK for the last three years.

The following are examples of formal documents that may be provided as evidence of ordinary residence for the last three years:

Notice of income tax coding

National Insurance or National Health Service registration issues by the Department for Work and Pensions or a local health authority.
Note 9 The document(s) must be a formal document(s) such as a decree absolute or final dissolution (or other confirmation of the legal dissolution of the relationship) or a death certificate as specified in paragraphs 22 to 26 of Appendix FM-SE of the Immigration Rules.

Note 10 The items of correspondence should be addressed to you jointly or in both your names. Examples of acceptable items are listed below. The documents provided must be originals. Photocopies are not acceptable.

The dates of the items of correspondence should be spread evenly over the whole period you are relying on. They should be from at least 3 different sources.

If you do not have enough items in your joint names, you may also provide items addressed to each of you individually if they show the same address for both of you.

For example:

• Four items of correspondence in joint names to the same address and two items addressed to each partner at the address. In total eight items would need to be submitted.

• If you and your partner have no bills or correspondence in joint names, you will need to submit twelve items (six each) of correspondence, evidencing that you reside together at the same address.

If you and your partner lived with relatives or friends for some or all of the period you are relying on, please provide a letter from the relative(s) and/or friend(s) confirming this.

If you did not live together for any part of the period you are relying on, tell us the reasons for this and whether you stayed in contact with each other during this time, and provide any relevant supporting evidence.

Please give an explanation on a separate sheet if you cannot provide six items; if the items are not addressed to both of you; or if they do not cover the period you are relying on.

Examples of acceptable items of correspondence

• Letters or other documents from government departments or agencies, for example HM Revenue and Customs, Department for Work and Pensions, DVLA, TV Licensing.

Evidence of where you and/or any partner lives, as the parent of the child/children.

Full birth certificate(s) which show the parents’ names for any children.

Other official documentation on headed paper.

For any children included on the application, items addressed to them, or official documents/letters on headed paper all evidencing the child’s continuous residence e.g. letters from a GP or hospital, letters from nursery/school etc.

Evidence of any factors which would make it difficult or impossible for you or your family members to leave the UK or integrate and establish a private life in the country of birth, or any country whose nationality held, if required to leave the UK.

Any other documents/details which support the application.

From the applicant:

I understand that you will check whether the information and supporting documentation that I have supplied to the Home Office from a bank or utility company is correct. 'Correct' means that documents are unaltered originals issued by the bank or utility company and that the information on them is correct and applies to me or the person named as a customer on the document.
